Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Teachers' Retirement System.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before March 15, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Teachers' Retirement System and have had three months of permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS*, or 55-b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

For Exam No. 31-088020:

- Either A. a Teachers' Retirement Examiner 1;
- Or B. an Administrative Assistant 1, Administrative Assistant 2, Assistant Actuary, Information Technology Specialist 1, Information Technology Specialist 1 (Programming), Office Assistant 3, Office Assistant 3 (Calculations), Program Aide, Secretary 1, or Secretary 2.

For Exam No. 31-089020:

- Either A. a Teachers' Retirement Examiner 2;
- Or B. an Administrative Assistant 2, Assistant Actuary, Head File Clerk, Information Technology Specialist 1, Information Technology Specialist 1 (Programming), Office Assistant 3, Office Assistant 3 (Calculations), Public Information Specialist 1, Retirement Systems Information Representative 1, or Secretary 2.

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before December 15, 2024, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class on or before December 15, 2024, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before December 15, 2024, to qualify for this examination.*

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service described in the A Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Or
After two years of service described in the B Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed to a non-competitive position via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

Eligibles who meet the "B" qualifications, and who are subsequently appointed to an "A" title, may request to have their name added to the "A" list, once they have completed the time in title year(s) of service in the "A" title. The request should be submitted in writing to the NYS Department of Civil Service, Albany, New York 12239; Attention: S3/MAS.

Order of Certification: The order of certification of this eligible list will be:

1. "A" eligibles
2. "All" eligibles

The Positions: These positions exist in New York State Teachers' Retirement System, and are located in Albany.

Duties: As a Teachers' Retirement Examiner 2, you would process retirement applications; calculate a variety of benefits in accordance with applicable laws, rules, and regulations; approve salary and service data used in benefit calculations; edit and process reports; present seminars to school district personnel; respond to questions for members, school districts, colleges, and department staff; and supervise the work of Teachers' Retirement Examiners 1 and clerical/support staff.

As a Teachers' Retirement Examiner 3, you would make salary and service determinations; present seminars to customers; coordinate the resolution of complex legal and administrative issues; implement legislative and process changes; respond to customer inquiries; and perform the full range of supervisory duties over Teachers' Retirement Examiners 1 and 2.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test . The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-088020	31-089020
1. Preparing written material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.	X	X
2. Laws, rules and regulations, legal opinions and written policies and procedures of the NYSTRS - These questions are designed to test for knowledge of laws, rules, regulations (sections 5000-5015 and 5020-5021; 5023 and 5025), legal opinions and written policies and procedures of the New York State Teachers' Retirement System in effect as of June 30, 2024. Some of the questions are presented in the context of specific employment and/or retirement situations and may require you to draw conclusions or perform calculations to determine the answers.	X	X
3. Arithmetic reasoning - These questions test your ability to solve an arithmetic problem presented in sentence or short paragraph form. You must read the problem, understand the situation presented, decide what must be done to solve it, and apply the appropriate arithmetic operation(s) in the appropriate order, in order to determine the correct answer. Knowledge of addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division will be necessary. Questions may also involve the use of percents, decimals, and fractions. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone.	X
4. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.	X
5. Educating and interacting with the public - These questions test for knowledge of techniques used to interact effectively with individuals and/or community groups, to educate or inform them about topics of concern, to publicize or clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with others in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.	X	X

Subject of Examination (continued):	For Examination Nos.
	31-088020	31-089020
6. Understanding and interpreting tabular material - These questions test your ability to understand, analyze, and use the internal logic of data presented in tabular form. You may be asked to perform tasks such as completing tables, drawing conclusions from them, analyzing data trends or interrelationships, and revising or combining data sets. The concepts of rate, ratio, and proportion are tested. Mathematical operations are simple, and computational speed is not a major factor in the test. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone .		X
7. Administrative supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.
