Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before June 14, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation and have had three months of permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS*, or 55b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

For Exam No. 31-094020: an Environmental Conservation Police Officer, Environmental Conservation Police Officer Trainee 2, or an Environmental Conservation Police Officer Trainee 1.

For Exam No. 31-095020: an Environmental Conservation Investigator 1, Supervising Environmental Conservation Police Officer, or an Environmental Conservation Police Officer (service as an Environmental Conservation Police Officer Trainee 1 or 2 does not meet this requirement).

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before March 14, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying position in the non-competitive class on or before March 14, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before March 14, 2025, to qualify for this examination.*

If you pass the examination for Environmental Conservation Investigator 1 you will be restricted from appointment from the eligible list until you have one year of service as an Environmental Conservation Police Officer.

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service described in the Minimum Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed to a non-competitive position via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

The Positions: These positions exist in the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation and are located throughout New York State.

Duties: As an Environmental Conservation Investigator 1, you would be a sworn police officer with the Bureau of Environmental Crimes Investigation (BECI). You would conduct long-term investigations into criminal and civil violations of the Environmental Conservation Law and the Penal Law when it applies to violations involving the environment and/or natural resources. Assigned duties often require you to work at sites contaminated with hazardous substances and other hazards. You would conduct lengthy, covert, and detailed investigations; execute search warrants; write complex reports; make arrests; testify in court and administrative hearings; and deal with other matters concerned with investigations. You would also be required to prepare all necessary reports and legal documents associated with the duties of this position.

As an Environmental Conservation Investigator 2, within the Bureau of Environmental Crimes Investigation (BECI), you would directly supervise the day-to-day activities of subordinate investigators as assigned by the Regional Chief Environmental Conservation Officer and/or the BECI Chief Environmental Conservation Officer or Major Environmental Conservation. This would involve directing their work in progressively complex and sensitive cases, identifying and/or assigning training activities, reviewing and approving reports, documents, and site safety plans, etc. You would also perform appropriate supervisory and investigative duties while working at contaminated sites and assist in developing and maintaining contacts with other law enforcement agencies and prosecutors.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test . The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-094020	31-095020
1. DEC Bureau of Environmental Crimes Investigations' techniques - These questions test for knowledge of investigative techniques in areas such as interviewing, surveillance, gathering and preserving evidence, and testifying in court.	X	X
2. EnCon Law, Title 6 NYCRR, Criminal Procedure Law, Penal Law, and other relevant laws - These questions test for knowledge of the laws in effect on January 1, 2025 that Environmental Conservation Officers and Environmental Conservation Investigators may encounter in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities.	X	X
3. Evaluating information and evidence - These questions test the candidates' abilities to evaluate and draw conclusions from information and evidence. Each question consists of a set of facts and a conclusion based on the facts. The candidate must decide if a conclusion is warranted by the facts.	X	X
4. Preparing written material in a police setting - These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports and communications that police personnel write. The content is appropriate for the ranks/levels being tested. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. They consist of restatements of information given in note form. You must choose the best version from each set of four choices. Other questions test for the ability to organize paragraphs. They consist of paragraphs with their sentences out of order. For each of the paragraphs you must choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.	X	X
5. Understanding and interpreting written material - These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret written material. You will be presented with brief reading passages and will be asked questions about the passages. You should base your answers to the questions only on what is presented in the passages and not on what you may happen to know about the topic.	X	X

Subject of Examination (continued):	For Examination Nos.
6. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.
