Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Department of Labor.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before March 1, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of New York State Department of Labor and have had 45 days of permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS*, or 55-b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

For Exam No. 31-104020: Senior Safety and Health Inspector or Safety and Health Inspector.

For Exam No. 31-105020: Associate Safety and Health Inspector or Senior Safety and Health Inspector.

Only the title or titles listed above are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before January 15, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying position in the non-competitive class on or before January 15, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before January 15, 2025, to qualify for this examination.*

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List:

For Exam No. 31-104020: After one year as a Senior Safety and Health Inspector OR two years as a Safety and Health Inspector, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

For Exam No. 31-105020: After one year as an Associate Safety and Health Inspector, OR two years as a Senior Safety and Health Inspector, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

The Positions: These positions exist in the New York State Department of Labor and are located Statewide.

Duties: As an Associate Safety and Health Inspector, you would perform and supervise staff performing inspections or consultations at public and private work sites and places of public assembly to ensure conformance with established occupational safety and health standards, identify unsafe conditions and work practices, and provide training to protect workers and the public. You would plan and schedule district office activities; supervise, train, and develop staff; review and monitor operations of the district office; provide training and education to employers; act as a safety and health resource for assigned program; and conduct the most difficult inspections or consultations.

As a Supervising Safety and Health Inspector, you would supervise staff engaged in conducting safety and health inspections of public sector facilities including State, county, city, and town office buildings to ensure conformance with New York State occupational safety and health standards. You would plan and schedule work, monitor employee performance and program operations, and train staff.

Note:

- Travel Requirements: Appointment to certain positions requires extensive travel within an area of assignment. Appointees may need to operate a motor vehicle or have other means to meet the transportation needs of the job. If the position requires that you operate a motor vehicle, you must continuously have a driver's license valid in New York State to continue employment. Field work and travel expenses are reimbursed on a fixed schedule. Overnight travel may be required.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test . The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-104020	31-105020
1. Administrative supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.		X
2. Ensuring effective inter/intra agency communications - These questions test for understanding of techniques for interacting effectively with individuals and agencies, to educate and inform them about topics of concern, to clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with the staff of one's own agency and/or that of other agencies in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.	X	X
3. Inspection and interviewing techniques - These questions test your ability to select the proper course of action in situations which might occur during routine inspections. Question topics may cover, but will not be limited to, such areas as interviewing, gathering information and evidence, maintaining proper attitude, and handling irregularities and violations with integrity and sound judgment. Some questions may be in a situational format while others may deal with the proper principles and practices of inspection.	X	X

Subject of Examination (Continued):	For Examination Nos.
	31-104020	31-105020
4. Occupational health and safety including accident prevention and control - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices of occupational health and safety, and accident prevention and control, including such areas as causes of accidents, accident rates, behavior and attitudes of workers and supervisors, accident investigations and interviewing techniques, and types of accident prevention and safety programs.	X	X
5. Preparing written material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.	X	X
6. Statutory and regulatory requirements relating to occupational health and safety, and building safety - These questions are designed to test the candidates' knowledge of those State and Federal laws, rules and regulations that pertain to worker safety and health practices and building safety. Questions may be drawn from, but are not limited to, the New York State Uniform Fire Prevention and Building Code, Occupational Health and Safety Administration, National Fire Protection Association, Life Safety Standards, and New York State Department of Labor safety and health regulations.	X	X
7. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline. If you pass, your seniority credit(s), if any, will be included in the computation of your final score. Your final score on the eligible list will be determined after adding any Veterans' credits.

Credit For Seniority: Seniority is credited at the rate of one credit for each five-year period (or fraction thereof), excluding the first year of service.

Admission To The Test: If approved for a multiple-choice test, you will receive an admission notice which will indicate your assigned test date and the way your test will be administered. Your test may be administered with paper and pencil or online at a state test site using a state-provided Chromebook. You cannot request to change your scheduled day or request a specific type of test administration.

Applicants are required to have a Personal NY.gov account and keep their email address up to date. The Department of Civil Service and other state agencies will communicate with you through email correspondence.
