Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Department of Corrections and Community Supervision.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before June 14, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Department of Corrections and Community Supervision and have had three months of permanent competitive or 55-b/55-c service as a Parole Officer, Parole Officer (Spanish Language), Parole Officer Trainee 1, Parole Officer Trainee 1 (Spanish Language), Parole Officer Trainee 2, or Parole Officer Trainee 2 (Spanish Language). If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally* in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before March 14, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

*If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before March 14, 2025, to qualify for this examination.

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service at the full performance level, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

Additional Requirements for Appointment:

1. Language Proficiency: If you pass the examination and apply to a title which requires language proficiency, you must demonstrate your language proficiency at a level that will ensure your ability to perform the duties of the position properly. The proficiency test will only be given to enough candidates to fill current vacancies.
2. Peace Officer Status: Peace officers must be qualified to hold such office in accordance with state law. To do so, they must attend New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services sanctioned peace officer training. Employment is dependent on continuous certification as a peace officer. Conviction of a felony will bar appointment.
3. Senior Parole Officers are public officers under state law. Although New York State residency is not required to take the written test, New York State residency is required to accept and continue employment.

4. In the course of your employment as a Senior Parole Officer, you may be required to transport releasees, do surveillance work in the community, and perform other field responsibilities requiring the use of a state or personal vehicle. Senior Parole Officers must possess a valid and unrestricted license to operate a motor vehicle in New York State at the time of appointment and continuously thereafter.
5. This position may require shift work outside of normal business hours.

Duties: Senior Parole Officers and Senior Parole Officers (Spanish Language) are employed in the Department of Corrections and Community Supervision as first-line supervisors in the Parole Officer series. Incumbents assess and evaluate Parole Officer performance; provide training and instruction; use case conferences and other supervision controls to monitor Parole Officer case supervision activities, community contacts and case management services; enforce the policies and procedures of the agency; and issue warrants and make recommendations to revoke parole or pursue alternatives. They are assigned to field offices, including work release.

Note: If you submit an application for an examination with a language parenthetical, an application will automatically be submitted for you for the non-language examination.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test. The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:

1. Preparing written material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.
2. Community supervision procedures, programs, policy & related laws & regulations as documented in the Parole Policy & Procedures Manual and DOCCS directives - These questions test for knowledge of community supervision procedures, programs, policy and related laws, rules and regulations and their application to situations encountered in dealing with offenders.
3. Principles and practices of community supervision casework in the field and community supervision procedures as related to field parole operations - These questions test for knowledge and application of the principles and practices of community supervision casework in a field parole setting.
4. Operational supervision in a field setting - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in supervising community supervision staff in a field parole setting.
5. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

If you pass, your seniority credit(s), if any, will be included in the computation of your final score. Your final score on the eligible list will be determined after adding any Veterans' credits.

Credit For Seniority: Seniority is credited at the rate of one credit for each five-year period (or fraction thereof), excluding the first year of service.

Admission To The Test: If approved for a multiple-choice test, you will receive an admission notice which will indicate your assigned test date and the way your test will be administered. Your test may be administered with paper and pencil or online at a state test site using a state-provided Chromebook. You cannot request to change your scheduled day or request a specific type of test administration.
