Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before June 14, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles and have had 45 days of permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS*, or 55-b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

For Exam No. 31-180020: a Vehicle Safety Technical Analyst 1, or a Senior Automotive Facilities Inspector.

For Exam No. 31-181020: a Vehicle Safety Technical Analyst 2, Supervisor Consumer and Facility Services, or a Senior Automotive Facilities Inspector.

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before April 30, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class on or before April 30, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before April 30, 2025, to qualify for this examination.*

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service described in the Minimum Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed to a non-competitive position via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

Duties: As a Vehicle Safety Technical Analyst 2, under the supervision of a Vehicle Safety Technical Analyst 3, you would supervise Vehicle Safety Technical Analysts 1's and assist in analysis and evaluation of the Emissions Inspection Program, and coordinate the development of repair standards, special projects, and surveys. You would serve as a technical resource for the automotive industry, the Department, and the public. Other responsibilities include the development, presentation, review, and evaluation of training curriculum for the industry and for Division of Vehicle Safety technical staff.

As a Vehicle Safety Technical Analyst 3, you would supervise Vehicle Safety Technical Analysts 1's and/or Vehicle Safety Technical Analysts 2's; prepare data for the annual budget; plan, implement, and direct technical training programs for the automotive industry; and handle public relations. You would manage, coordinate, and evaluate Division of Vehicle Safety Services programs and projects, including development of programs resulting from new legislation. You would serve as technical liaison to the automotive industry, state and federal agencies, other Department of Motor Vehicle divisions, and the general public. You would work with the Department of Environmental Conservation to coordinate program requirements. You would be responsible for the administration of the New York Vehicle Inspection Program (NYVIP). This involves overseeing the day-to-day emissions equipment vendor activity. You would also be instrumental in the planning and development of future emission program Request for Proposals (RFP) which result in a complex multi-year contract affecting inspection stations across New York State.

Note:

- Travel Requirements: Appointment may require extensive travel within a designated area of assignment. Appointees to these positions are required to operate a motor vehicle. To be appointed, you must possess a driver's license valid in New York State at the time of appointment and continuously thereafter. Field work and travel expenses are reimbursed on a fixed schedule. Overnight travel may be required. Suspension or loss of your driver license may result in removal from employment in this position.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test . The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-180020	31-181020
1. Maintenance and repair of motor vehicles - These questions test for knowledge of the operating characteristics of the various mechanical and electrical components of motor vehicles and diagnostic practices involved in the maintenance and repair of these components.	X
2. Understanding and interpreting laws, rules, and regulations - These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret regulations relating to vehicle safety and emissions inspections, motor vehicle dealers and motor vehicle repair shops.	X	X
3. Preparing written material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.	X	X
4. Understanding and interpreting tabular material - These questions test your ability to understand, analyze, and use the internal logic of data presented in tabular form. You may be asked to perform tasks such as completing tables, drawing conclusions from them, analyzing data trends or interrelationships, and revising or combining data sets. The concepts of rate, ratio, and proportion are tested. Mathematical operations are simple, and computational speed is not a major factor in the test. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone .	X	X
5. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.	X

Subject of Examination (Continued):	For Examination Nos.
	31-180020	31-181020
6. Administration - These questions test for knowledge of the managerial functions involved in directing an organization or an organizational segment. These questions cover such areas as: developing objectives and formulating policies; making decisions based on the context of the administrator's position and authority; forecasting and planning; organizing; developing personnel; coordinating and informing; guiding and leading; testing and evaluating; and budgeting.		X
7. Administrative supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.		X

If you pass, your seniority credit(s), if any, will be included in the computation of your final score. Your final score on the eligible list will be determined after adding any Veterans' credits.

Credit For Seniority: Seniority is credited at the rate of one credit for each five-year period (or fraction thereof), excluding the first year of service.

Admission To The Test: If approved for a multiple-choice test, you will receive an admission notice which will indicate your assigned test date and the way your test will be administered. Your test may be administered with paper and pencil or online at a state test site using a state-provided Chromebook. You cannot request to change your scheduled day or request a specific type of test administration.

Applicants are required to have a Personal NY.gov account and keep their email address up to date. The Department of Civil Service and other state agencies will communicate with you through email correspondence.
